PREFACE

This is the third volume of an eight volume set of documented descendants of Lieutenant Nicholas Stillwell. The ninth generation of Lieutenant Nicholas Stillwell's descendants were many in number. A single volume was far too large to handle and print. As such, I found it necessary to divide the ninth generation into two part. I continue to struggle with identifying the point at which a given family line switched to the use of three "L" version of the surname and in some cases when the descendants of a given line switched back to the four "L" version. The difficulty continues to be with documenting consistent usage. "Gray areas" persist in which clarity is not readily apparent. Errors have most likely been made in this regard. I hope that these errors will be minimal in number.

I again express my deepest appreciation to those who generously shared their research with me and also to my wife, Barbara, and son, Andrew, for their encouragement and support over the past years.

CROSSED THE SILENT RIVER_

Again the ruthless hand of the grim destroyer, death, has entered the peaceful home of one of our old and esteemed fellow citizens, William W. Stilwell, and wafted his frail craft over the dark and silent river. Mr. Stilwell has been a patient sufferer for years, but was not confined to the house until the past few weeks, but bore his sufferings with patience until the final end came on Friday, January. 18, 1895, when he peacefully passed away. Mr. Stilwell was born at Hector, Tompkins County, N. Y., July 10, 1820. A few years later he moved to Jackson, Tioga County, Penn., where he married Miss Susan A. Rozell, November. 15, 1841. In the fall of 1854, he came to Plainfield, where he has since resided. Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Stilwell, nine of whom are still living- three sons and six daughters- C. L., L. D. and W. H. Stilwell; Mrs. Adeline Walker, Mrs. Delphine Wood, Mrs. Mary Perry, Mrs. Saloma DeVoe, Mrs. Nellie Kent and Miss Nora Stilwell. He was a man universally respected and loved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His wife and family have lost a loving and indulgent husband and father, and the community a true and good friend. Mr. Stilwell was a soldier in the war of the Rebellion, having enlisted in the first Reg. Wis. Heavy Art., in the fall of 1864, to serve one year or during the war. On account of disability he was discharged in the spring of 1865. At the time of his death he was a member of Walter Waterman Post G. A. R. by which organization he was buried in the Plainfield Cemetery on the Sunday following his death. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. E. C. Booth, of the M. E. Church of this village. Misc:

William Weybourne Stilwell served as a Private with I Battery, 1st Wisconsin Heavy Artillery during the last year of the war. Batteries "E," "F," "G," "H," "I," "K," "L" and "M" were organized September and October, 1864 and were subsequently ordered to Washington. D. C. where they were attached to the 3rd Brigade, DeRussy's Division, 22nd Army Corps, through December, 1864. The Batteries were transferred to the 4th Brigade, DeRussy's Division, 22nd Army Corps where they remained until the end of the war. Battery I was assigned to the defense of Washington, D. C. at Fort Farnsworth. (National Park Service, Civil War Soldiers & Sailors System, n.d., <<http://www.itd.nps.gov/cwss/soldiers.htm>> (National Archive Roll No. M559_29)).

Gone Home

The funeral of Mrs. Susan A. Stilwell took place at the Campbell Corners school house, on Friday afternoon, February. 21st, Rev. E. C. Booth, officiating. ___Mrs. Susan A. Stilwell, whose maiden name was Susan A. Rozell, was married to Mr. Wm. W. Stilwell in Jackson, Tioga County, Penn., November. 15, 1841, and came with him to Wisconsin and located in West Plainfield, where they lived together in happy union since 1854. Mr. Stilwell died January. 18, 1895. Mrs. Stilwell's age at the time of her death was 72 years, 4 months and 16 days. She was the mother of 10 children, nine of whom are still living-C. L. Stilwell, L. D. Stilwell, W. H. Stilwell, Mrs. H. C. Wood, Mrs. Harry Walker, Mrs. N. Perry, Mrs. Delbert Devoe, Mrs. John Kent and Miss Nora Stilwell. She was also a sister of W. A. Rozell. She was a kind and obliging neighbor and an affectionate mother and in turn loved and respected by all who knew her. Her last illness was brief. Her death, an open door, to peacefulness, rest and reunion beyond the parting, and this vale of tears. Of the family those now left to continue life's struggles, have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.(Waushara County Obituaries, n.d., <<http://www.rootsweb.com/~wiwausha/obits015.html>> (October 17, 2005). Death: Her obituary reads:

“Waushara Argus-Wednesday October 4, 1922
SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. LESTER DANIELS
DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION AT BERLIN HOSPITAL.
FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SATURDAY, SEPT. 30TH.

Funeral services for Mrs. Nora Stilwell Daniels, wife of Lester Daniels, were held from her late home one mile east of Wautoma, Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. Theodore Reykdal officiating. A host of friends from this community and Plainfield, where she spent her girlhood days, joined the relatives in paying their final respects. Large floral offerings were contributed by friends and relatives in token of their love for her many good deeds.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her death, two brothers, William and Clark Stilwell of Plainfield; four sisters, Mrs Adeline Walker, Mrs. N. J. Perry, Mrs. Delbert Devoe, all of Plainfield; Mrs. John M. Kent of Wautoma; and many nieces and nephews. Another brother, Delos Stilwell, and a sister, Mrs. H. C. Wood, preceded her in death. Interment was made in the Daniels' family lot at the Wautoma cemetery.

Mrs. Daniels was the youngest daughter of William Weybourn and Susan Stilwell of Plainfield. She was born at Plainfield November 20, 1867, and died September 27, 1922. In her youth she attended the Plainfield schools to prepare for the profession of teaching, and demonstrated a remarkable aptitude for her studies, but ill health prevented her from carrying out her plans. On April 29, 1903, she was united in marriage to Lester Daniels, son of Charles and Laura Daniels of Wautoma, and had since made her home on the Daniels farm east of Wautoma. For several months she had been in poor health. When taken to Berlin hospital Wednesday morning for an operation, she passed away with her husband and sister, Mrs. John M. Kent, attending her to the last. Death came with suffering, and her last words were a message of consolation to her bereaved ones.

Death in its crushing silence has taken away a loving wife and helpmate, and the community has lost a respected and benevolent friend. Mrs. Daniels was a member of the Wautoma post of the Women's Relief Corps, her father and two eldest brothers having served in the Civil War, and she was always active in the

“About the time the Drummond Mill was being erected, Leonard Stilwell fell ill and subsequently he died in Nelson on 21 March, 1863 at the very young age of 37. Extracts from the Coroner’s report state that Leonard was in Nelson Hospital from 3 March to 6 March, 1863 as he was suffering from a second attack of almost total paralysis, from which he never fully recovered. He was not kept in the hospital because his condition had improved – he had regained the use of speech and could walk. He was kept apart from the other patients and was cared for by Mr. William Rogerson and was attended to by three Doctors, was fed a normal diet and was prescribed stimulants such as wine and brandy. The report reveals the dissatisfaction of the visiting Surgeons as they believed Leonard’s life could have been prolonged if he had received satisfactory professional treatment from the resident Doctor. He was buried in Wakapuaka Cemetery, near

“I was given this information by family in Motueka and you have really confirmed it for me.

Leonard Ferris Stilwell [In NZ its under Stilwell] came to NZ on the New England whaling barque "Flora" in January 1847 had being raised in sawmills as his father Edward L Stilwell and his elder brother Clark Stilwell both owned and operated water powered sawmills in NY state and Pennsylvania.

On his arrival in Motueka [which is 45mins out of Nelson in South Island] Leonard worked for John D Greenwood as a farm hand and as a mill hand for many years and later worked in the Greenwood mill at Umukuri.

It is said that he was permitted by Dr Greenwood to name the mill area "Brooklyn" after Brooklyn NY.

Later Leonard helped David Drummond build the water -powered sawmill at Marahau and no doubt he would have assembled the mill machinery which was recovered from the Greenwood mill at Brooklyn after the mill closed down.

David Drummond was father in law of Sarah Elizabeth Stilwell.

Leonard F Stilwell and Ann Tutbury had 6 children of whom 4 survived to adult hood. Sophia-Sarah-Clymena and Richard Clark Stilwell usually referred to as Clark.”

“Winter Place was built in 1855 by Joseph Samuel Winter and his wife Mary Elizabeth Winter. One of the country's leading architects of the time, Samuel Sloan of Philadelphia, designed Col. Winter's first home and it is believed that Sloan designed Winter Place as well. Sloan also designed the Governor's Mansion in Raleigh, NC. Mary Elizabeth Winter is the namesake for the very historically significant Winter Building, which she inherited from her Father, John Gindrat in 1854. Winter Building is on the National Registry of Historic Places primarily for housing the first offices of the Confederate Army. From this building, the Confederate Secretary of the Army issued the order for General Beauregard to open fire on Fort Sumter.”

Author's note: The following is an excerpt on the line of George W. Lent.

“James Webber Lent was a large merchant in this city. His father, John, was a master builder, and died in North Carolina in 1768. He married Ann, a daughter of Adrian Hoogland, of this city. He was a captain in Braddock's expedition during the old French war. He was also present when General Wolf fell at Quebec. He was a fierce old fellow, full of fight and full of fun. He left several children, and two of them went into business in New York, --- James Webber and John.

John was a gold and silver smith at No. 18 Nassau street, after peace was proclaimed. James W. fought all through the Revolutionary war. After that, in 1790, he opened a grocery, corner of Little Water and Broad streets. In 1784 he married Miss Macomb, a daughter of Nathan Macomb. In 1798, he had moved into South street, where he kept a flour store in addition to groceries. In 1802 he was appointed inspector of pot and pearl ashes. His office was at No. 92 Broad, and house at No. 97 Stone streets. He held that office for several years. James W.; Lent was elected register about thirty-two years ago, and held the office several years. His son George W. Lent went into business on his own account at No. 82 1/2 Pearl street in 1828, but lived with his father down in the First Ward, at No. 31 water street. James W. died in 1739. The son is yet living.” (Walter Barrett, The Old Merchants of New York City, Second Series (1863), n.d., <<http://www.bklyn-genealogy-info.com/Business/Merchant/Wetmore29.html>> (March 4, 2006))

Death:

Reference (c) above. Her obituary reads as follows:

“FUNERAL OF MRS. MANNERS TUESDAY - Daughter of Early Settler Died at 6:45 Sunday Afternoon -

Mrs. Catherine Stillwell Maners, 59, daughter of Cynthia Evelyn and Walter Stillwell; pioneer settlers of Arkansas County, died at her home here Sunday afternoon, June 2, at 6:45 o'clock. Mrs Maners was born December. 28, 1880, in Arkansas county and spent her entire life here. She was a great lover of flowers and her attractive garden drew comments from old and young. It was the habit of children to stop at her home and gather flowers to take to their teachers. Mrs. Maners was not a woman of worldly amusements, but one of those good mothers who thought of her God, church, home and family.

September 22, 1898, she was united in marriage to William Hershel Maners, to which union two daughters were born. For the past several months she suffered, her cheerful disposition never left her and she had a smile and a cheerful word for all who visited her home.

She was a faithful and zealous member of the Christian Church for over thirty years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs Ernest Owen Dawson of this city and Mrs. Vance Montgomery of Helena, Ark., two grand children, Dixie Lee Dawson and Hune Gayle Montgomery; one sister, Mrs. Charles Morgan of this city; one brother Albert Stillwell of Welweetka, Okla., and a number of nieces, nephews and friends.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Turpin Funeral Home, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. J. R. Wright, pastor of the Christian church presiding. Burial will be in Lone Tree Cemetery.

Active pallbearers: Howard Horst, Russell McCollum, Terry Cummings, Ervin McGahhey, Howard Morphew, Howard Conrey.

Honorary: Dr. H. V. Glenn, Dr. E. B. Swindler, M. F. Elms, J. E. Ray, O. M. Young, W. B. Coe, and the Men's Bible Class of the First Christian Church.”

James' military records are under the surname of McGuire. He served as a private throughout the war with the 133rd New York Volunteer Infantry Regiment. The regiment served primarily with the 19th Corps in the defense of New Orleans. The regiment joined Sheridan's Valley Campaign in 1864 and it was eventually mustered out of service on June 6, 1865. The regiment lost twice as many men from disease as from combat. She is buried in Staten Island Cemetery, Lot 112. The cemetery transcript gives her age at the time of death as 62 years 9 months 26 days and the date of death as 18 November 1915. This would indicate that she was ten years younger than reported in the numerous census records in which she was located. There appears to either be a typographic error in the tombstone transcript or the tombstone inscription is wrong.

"Mr. Clement Clark Moore, of No. 57 East Fifty-Fourth Street, died suddenly yesterday afternoon of pneumonia at the Hotel Belmont, where he was to have spent the winter with his family. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning in Saint Bartholomew's Church, Madison Avenue and Forty-Third Street.

Mr. Moore had been ill but a couple of days, and as late as Wednesday was seen about the corridor of the hotel. Mrs. Moore and one of her sons are at the hotel convalescing from protracted illness. The engagement of another son, Mr. Barrington Moore, to Miss Muriel Morris was announced early this month. The marriage was arranged for December 20, at the home of Miss Morris' mother, Mrs. L. Cass Ledyard, No. 27 East Seventy-Second Street.

Besides the widow and three sons, Messrs. Barrington, Benjamin and William S. Moore, a brother, Mr.

Casimir de Rham Moore, of No. 109 East Thirty-Eight Street, and a sister, Miss Katherine T., Moore, survive.

Misc:

Clement C. Moore served as a 1st Lieutenant in I Company, 20th Massachusetts Voluntary Infantry Regiment. He served with the regiment from December 5, 1864 until the regiment was mustered out of service. During this period of time the regiment was attached to the 1st Brigade, 2nd Division, 2nd Army Corps. Clement was with the regiment when it fought at Dabney's Mills, Hatcher's Run, the Seige of Petersburg, Sailor's Creek, High Bridge and Cumberland Church. He was with the regiment at Appomattox Court House for Lee's surrender. The regiment was mustered out of service on July 16, 1865 at Washington. The regiment lost a total of 409 officers and enlisted men killed, mortally wounded and disease. “Augusta Currie Bradhurst Field (1846-1919) was the daughter of Samuel Stillwell Bradhurst and Mary Pearsall Bradhurst. She married William Hazard Field in 1863 and together they had two children, Mary Pearsall Field and William B. Osgood Field. They lived at 8 West 37th St. in New York City and had a vacation home in Mohegan Lake, N. Y. called Westfield. They often traveled to Europe and spent a year in Geneva, Switzerland, where their son William was born in 1870. After her husband died in 1888, Augusta continued to travel, often visiting relatives in England, with her daughter. She divided her time between her 37th St. house, Westfield, and William's house, High Lawn. She was called Gussie by friends and family, Mia by her grandchildren.” (Megan O’Shea, *William B. Children of Augusta Currie Bradhurst and William Hazard Field were as follows:

6975 i Mary Pearsall⁹ Field [16515], born¹⁶⁴⁷ 1865 in New York, New York, New York; died 1946.

“Mary Pearsall Field (1865-1946) was the daughter of William Hazard Field and Augusta Currie Bradhurst Field. She was called "Mamie" and "Mary" by friends and family. Her nieces and nephews called her "Marraine." As a young woman, Mary studied singing in America and Europe and was said to have a beautiful soprano voice. She wanted to pursue a career as a singer, but her mother would not allow it. After her father's death in 1888, Mary was her mother's constant companion, with the exception of a few vacations taken separately. Mary was very popular and had a great number of friends and admirers, including one who proposed marriage. She accepted his proposal, but her mother refused her permission to marry. Despite this, Mary maintained a lifelong friendship with her suitor, Gurdon Maynard. She also cultivated the acquaintance of many artists and musicians. Mary filled her days with visiting and entertaining friends and family in America and Europe. After Augusta's death in 1919, Mary's life proceeded in much the same way. She continued to travel and spent a great deal of time at Westfield, the family's farm in Mohegan Lake, N.Y., entertaining friends and family. Latter in life, she moved to an apartment in the Plaza Hotel, where she was attended by a nurse.” (Megan O'Shea, *William B. “Cavalry General Charles C. Dodge, 1st New York Mounted Rifles - After the horrific battle at Big Bethel Virginia on June 10, 1861 Capt. Judson “Kill” Kilpatrick of the 5th New York Volunteer Infantry was ordered to organize a squadron of cavalry for duty in General Butler’s department. Later in 1861, a young Captain by the name of Charles Cleveland Dodge received permission from the War Department to add two more companies to Kilpatrick’s unit to form a battalion. In the summer of 1862 the Governor of New York authorized Captain Dodge to organize sufficient companies to raise the battalion to the level of regiment and appointed him Colonel of the same. This regiment became known as the 1st New York Mounted Rifles under the leadership of Col. Dodge, it saw service almost exclusively in Virginia as it was the leading secessionist state. Col. Dodge and his men served with distinction in the hostile state as they garrisoned the outpost at Newport News as well as forming the cavalry column of General Wool’s army that marched on Norfolk, Virginia and received the surrender of that place well before the arrival of his superior officers. Col. Dodge led his men in several successful engagements including the Battle of Suffolk, Virginia and Hartford Ford North Carolina. Because of his actions, President Abraham Lincoln appointed him Brigadier General of Volunteers on November 29, 1862. General Dodge continued his career with the Union army by leading his New Yorkers throughout Virginia chasing Confederate Gen. James Longstreet and defending Union columns against attack. He resigned his commission effective June 12, 1863 and returned to New York to in Middletown, Monmouth, New Jersey. He married (1) before 1868 in New York (---) (---) [37445], died 1868/1872 in New York; (2) in 1872 in New York Annie (---) [37440], born^{2125, 2126, 2127} 1853 in New York;

Author's note: Either Annie or Charles may have had a child by a previous marriage. The 1880 New York Federal Census record shows Mary J., born 1868 in New York, enumerated with their household as a daughter. Annie would have been approximately fifteen years of age at the time of Mary's birth. Though such an event is not impossible, it is unlikely that she is the mother. This assumption is reinforced with evidence from the 1910 New Jersey Federal Census wherein it was recorded that only two children had been born to Annie.

Misc:

Charles M. Patterson served as a corporal with D Company, 29th New Jersey Volunteer Infantry Regiment. The regiment was organized at Freehold, New Jersey and was mustered into service on September 20, 1862. The regiment left for Washington, D.C. on September 28, 1862 and was subsequently assigned to Abercrombie's Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defenses of Washington, until December, 1862 when it was attached to Patrick's Command, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac. In January, 1863 the regiment was attached to the 3rd Brigade, 1st Division, 1st Army Corps, Army of the Potomac through June, 1863. The regiment fought at the Battle of Chancellorsville. The regiment was ordered home for muster out June, 1863 and was formally mustered out of the service on July 6, 1863. Regiment lost 1 enlisted man killed and 39 enlisted men by disease. Author's note: Three additional children were enumerated with Zachariah's household in the 1850 Kentucky Federal Census record. They were Mary Ann, age 18, Frances, age 16, and Susan, age 14. All three were born in Kentucky and enumerated with the surname of Herndon. Based on their age and the known date of the marriage of Elvira and Zachariah, it does not appear that these three are the offspring of this marriage. It is not clear as to whether they are the children of Zachariah from a previous marriage or from the first marriage of Elvira and subsequently adopted by Zachariah. Frances and Susan are also found enumerated with this household in the 1860 Kentucky Federal Census record.

Death:

Reference (a) above; he was murdered.

“Killing of Amos J. Stillwell

Mrs. A. J. Stillwell, of Hannibal, Mo., was awakened a few nights ago by hearing her husband say: "Fannie, is that you? Fannie, is that you?" Startled by her husband's strange question, Mrs. Stillwell partly arose, and just at that moment saw a man standing with his back to her, and at or near the foot of Mr. Stillwell's bed. A moment later she heard a whirring sound, as of something thrown violently through the air, followed by the noise of some one running down the stairway. She then ran to Mr. Stillwell's bed and found that he had been murdered. Mrs. League, who lives just across the street, says that a little after 2 A.M. some one rang her door bell twice, and upon looking out of the window, she saw Mrs. Stillwell in her night dress and barefooted. "Oh" she exclaimed, "tell Will to come over to the house quick; some one has murdered Mr. Stillwell." Mr. William League, accompanied by a young man in his employ, ran across the street and found Mr. Stillwell in a half kneeling position. The body was almost immersed in blood, Across the left ear and left side of the head, there was a horrible gash, deep enough to penetrate the brain, and which had evidently been inflicted by some sharp instrument." Misc:

“AMOS J. STILLWELL

This most honored of Hannibal's many prominent and respected citizens, now passed away, was born in Maysville, Mason County, Ky., April 20, 1828. His parents were both natives of Kentucky, and his father was engaged in the extensive milling business in the early days. Our subject lived in Maysville until 1838, when he and his brother engaged in shipping produce down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. In 1848 he removed to Hannibal in company with his brother Brison, with whom he engaged in the milling business at Bear Creek, the mill then standing at the mouth of Bear Creek in this city. In 1851 he went to St. Louis and engaged in the commission business with an associate, under the firm name of Moffitt & Stillwell. This business was successful until 1855, when Mr. Stillwell disposed of his interest and returned to Hannibal, where he engaged in pork packing, which he continued up to the time of his death. During his life in Hannibal he was engaged in several important business enterprises. He was one of the firm of Hayward, Stillwell & Co., who built the M., K. & T. R. R. from Moberly and Naples, Ill., to Hannibal. In the panic of 1873 Mr. Stillwell was elected President of the First National Bank of Hannibal and had full control of its affairs until it went into voluntary liquidation in 1879. At the time of his death he was president of the Hannibal Lumber Company, owned an immense cold storage and ice business and also owned a 600 acre farm in the Sny bottoms. He was one of Hannibal's most energetic citizens and one of the county's wealthiest men.

In 1854 he married Miss Mary Holman, of Boonville, Mo., who died in 1868, leaving one son, Richard H. He was again married in 1870 to Miss Fannie Anderson, daughter of Charles B. Anderson, of Maysville. Three children were born of this union, namely, Mary, who married Mr. Gray, of California, and later Mr. A. T. Cole, of Chicago, where she now resides; Harold, at home; and Erle, a student in the Annapolis Military Academy". (The Mirror of Hannibal, C. P. Greene, 1905, p. 304 (revised edition 1990)).

“The Erle Stillwell House at 1300 Pinecrest Drive was built in 1926 as the residence of Erle Stillwell, prominent Hendersonville architect. It is significant for its association with Stillwell at a time when he designed some of the most architecturally sophisticated buildings in Hendersonville. Stillwell was a prolific, well-educated architect with the ability to design in many different styles from the Neo-Classical Revival to Art Deco. His contribution to the architectural fabric of Hendersonville is immense and many of these buildings remain today as a legacy to his genius. The nominated property located at 1300 Pinecrest Drive is a highly intact example of his work, showcasing the use of top quality materials and design elements. It is one of two residences designed and built by Erle Stillwell for his own home, and is representative of one of the most prolific and significant periods of the early years of his career in Hendersonville. The second house Stillwell built, located on the lot just south of the nominated property, is associated with the latter part of his career from the late 1930s into the 1970s and is not part of this nomination.

Erle Gulick Stillwell was born in Hannibal, Missouri on August 29, 1885, the son of Amos John Stillwell and Frances Anderson Stillwell. He attended the U. S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, and then studied at the University of North Carolina, Cornell University, and the University of Pennsylvania. In addition to his academic studies, Stillwell traveled extensively in England, Scotland, France, Italy, and Greece. He visited Hendersonville in 1905 and decided to stay. In 1907 in Hendersonville, he married Eva Douglas Smith. Eva Smith was the daughter of William A. Smith, the developer of Laurel Park, just outside the city limits of Hendersonville. In 1916 Stillwell opened an architecture practice. He became a member of the American Institute of Architects in 1916, and served as Treasurer/Secretary of the North Carolina Chapter from 1917 to 1921, and again from 1934 to 1937. Stillwell also served as president of the North Carolina Chapter from 1922 to 1923 and again from 1942 to 1944. In 1942, he became a Fellow in the American Institute of Architects. Stillwell continued in private practice until 1942, when he became a founding partner in the Asheville-based firm, Six Associates. Only the larger firms were being granted government work at the time, so Stillwell joined with Charles E. Waddell, a civil engineer, and architects Henry Irven Gaines, Anthony Lord, William W. Dodge, and Stewart Rogers to form the company. The company was, and still is, located near Biltmore between Asheville and Hendersonville on Highway 25. Stillwell continued for thirty years as part of Six Associates, retiring in 1971. In addition to his architecture practice, Stillwell was an active member of St. James Episcopal Church in Hendersonville, along with several clubs including the Masonic lodge, the country club, and the Kiwanis Club. Eva Stillwell died on November 12, 1971, and Erle Stillwell died on October 22, 1978.” (Henderson Historic Preservation Committee, Erle Stillwell House I (Excerpts from the Local Historic Property Designation Report 4.25.01), n.d., <<http://www.hendersonvillehpc.org/structures/national-register-listings/erle-stillwell-house>>)

3739. Edward Cabiness⁸ Dorset [25021] (Samuel T. B.⁷, Samuel B.⁶, Elizabeth⁵ Stillwell, John⁴, Gershom³, Richard², Nicholas¹), born^{2877, 2878, 2879, 2880, 2881} 1861 in Huguenot, Powhatan, Virginia. He married about 1888/1889 in Powhatan County, Virginia Laura L. Franklin [25002], born^{2882, 2883, 2884} 1872 in Virginia.

Author's note: The 1910 Virginia Federal Census record attributes five children to Edward and Laura. The same record indicates that the couple had been married for only seven years. It appears that the three oldest daughters were the children of Laura by another marriage and took the name of Dorset. I have been unable to find any additional source records which might clarify this discrepancy in the 1910 census record.

Children of Edward Cabiness Dorset and Laura L. Franklin were as follows:

It is known from the 1900 census record that the family was residing in Colfax, Marion County, Kansas in 1900.

Misc:

Reference (a) above p. 112; He lived at Palestine, Indiana. He had eight children of which all but the youngest died at an early age. In 1881 the youngest claimed to have a photograph available.

Author's note: I believe Doctor John E. Stillwell wrote the year 1881 in error. George did not marry until 1862. For the youngest of eight children to write to him in 1881 seems out of the ordinary. Alma was born in 1878. If she was the youngest of the eight children, she would have been three years of age.

Children of George Stillwell and Huldah C. Ward were as follows:

- 7491 i Harry⁹ Stillwell [38371], born³⁴³² March 1870 in Seward, Kosciusko, Indiana; died 1870/1880 in Kosciusko County, Indiana; buried 1870/80 in Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Misc:

Jacob Haviland enlisted as a Corporal with H Company 100th Indiana Volunteer Infantry Regiment and was promoted to Sergeant. The regiment was mustered into the service on September 10, 1862 and was initially attached to the 2nd Brigade, District of Memphis, Tennessee. The regiment was attached to the 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 16th Army Corps during the siege of Vicksburg. It was subsequently transferred to the 15th Army Corps as a part of the 1st Brigade, 4th Division. It was transferred to the 2nd Brigade, 4th Division during Sherman's campaign in Georgia and the Carolinas. It was mustered out of the service on July 8, 1865 as part of the 2nd Brigade, 1st Division, 15th Army Corps.

The regiment fought at the Battles of Vicksburg, Chattanooga, Resaca, Dallas, New Hope, Kenesaw Mountain and Bentonville. It participated in the Siege of Atlanta and Savannah and pursuit of Hood's forces through Georgia and Alabama. The regiment lost 58 men and officers killed or mortally wounded and an additional 176 from disease. Author's note: The following is quoted from a correspondence from Thomas Stilwell. The comments in parentheses were added by me.

"Here is a quotation from the obit:" "Her [Hannah Jane] parents [Daniel and Beulah] were residents of Philadelphia, but the pioneer spirit led them to come westward, first settling in Pikway Co., Ohio. In 1853 they moved to Drake Co., Ohio where the daughter was united in marriage to Christopher Haviland, August 18, 1861." Albert Augustus Stilwell served as a private with G Company 29th New Jersey Volunteer Infantry Regiment. The Regiment was mustered into the service for a nine month tour of duty on September 20, 1862 at Freehold and saw little action up until the time it was mustered out on July 6, 1863. The Regiment served primarily in and around Washington, D. C. as part of the defensive force of that city until January, 1863 when it was transferred to the 3rd Brigade, 1st Division, 1st Army Corps, Army of the Potomac. The Regiment was engaged at the Battle of Chancellorsville. By the time the regiment was mustered out of service it had lost one man killed in action and 39 men from disease. Misc:

Nathan Marshall served as a private with I Company 50th Virginia Infantry Regiment. The original regiment was captured at Fort Donelson, Tennessee and was subsequently exchanged in the Spring of 1862. The regiment fought in a number of conflicts from Chancellorsville to Cold Harbor. More than 40 percent of the regiment was disabled at the Battle of Gettysburg and the regiment sustained heavy casualties at the Battle of The Wilderness. The regiment disbanded in April, 1865. Author's note: The 1880 Virginia Federal Census is the only record in which I have seen his given name. The spelling of his given name was very difficult to decipher. This version is the best that I could develop from the enumerator's handwriting. I also suspect that the enumerator wrote the name based on his interpretation of the pronunciation of the name.

Author's note: Ralph was committed to the Clarinda State Hospital for Insane sometime between 1915 and 1917. His draft registration card for World War I was completed by the hospital staff in June of 1917. A written notation indicated that he was both deaf and insane. He was a patient at this institution through at least 1925. I could find no record of him after 1925. Based on the information provided in the Iowa State Census records he had at least an education through the sixth grade. If this is correct, his medical condition apparently was most likely caused by a disease such as measles.

Notes for Lemuel or Samuel Stillwell

Misc: His obituary follows:

“Life Story of Lemuel Stillwell

Lemuel Stillwell, son of Abel and Catharine Stillwell, was born November. 9, 1842, in Belmont Co., Ohio, and passed away at the age of 90 years, 8 months and 6 days. He is one of a family of eight children, all having preceded him to the great beyond. He spent his boyhood days on farms, using such implements as the cradle and the flail. At the age of 20 years he enlisted in the Co. B, 98th Ohio Volunteer infantry, where he served more than three years. He was honorably discharged in Washington, D.C. he fought in the battles of Missionary Ridge, Kennesaw Mountain, Gettysburg and others, and marched with Sherman to the sea. He often spoke of his sad home-coming after the war. His father had been dead several years and his mother had moved to Illinois. When he saw other boys going to their homes and he had none to go to, although a man, he sat down and cried. A good friend then invited him to his home. A few years later he came to Illinois and on Sept. 12, 1867, was married to Clementine Barton. To this union were born seven children, one dying in infancy and John Huston in 1895. The mother passed away on December. 4, 1887, at the home near Irwin. In 1894 Mr. Stillwell married Mrs. Anna Crouch at Yorktown, Ia. To this union one child, Shelby, was born. After their marriage the couple came immediately to Irwin where they lived on a farm for 10 years. They then moved into the town of Irwin where they resided since. Mr. Stillwell was a charter member of the M.E. church here and was a faithful member to the last. he also was a charter member of the J. R. Slack Post and when it disbanded he joined the Harlan Post. He was the last of the Irwin, G.A.R. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, six children, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The children are: Mahlon of Canada, Arthur of Pawnee City, Nebraska, Elmer, residence unknown, Clarence of Clarinda, Mrs. Lilly Bird of Irwin, and Shelby of Manila.” (Paul W. Stilwell, Paul W. Stilwell - Research By (stillie2@home.com)).

Lemuel or Samuel Stillwell served as a private with Company B, 98th Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment from August 6, 1862 until the regiment was mustered out of the service on June 1, 1865. The regiment was initially attached to the 34th Brigade, 10th Division, Army of the Ohio. In September of 1862 the 10th Division was transferred to the 1st Corps Army of the Ohio. In June 1863 the regiment was transferred to the 2nd Brigade, 1st Division, Reserve Corps, Army of the Cumberland. At the end of the war, the regiment was assigned to the 2nd Brigade, 2nd Division, 14th Army Corps, Army of the Cumberland.

The regiment participated in the Chickamauga Campaign, the Battle of Chickamauga, the Siege of Chattanooga. It participated in the Atlanta Campaign and was engaged at the Battles of Dallas, New Hope Church, Kennesaw Mountain, and Peach Tree Creek. During the Carolina Campaign the regiment was engaged at the Battles of Jonesboro, Taylor's Hole Creek and Bentonville. It was present at the occupation of Raleigh and at the surrender of Johnston's forces. The regiment lost 247 officers and enlisted men from direct combat, wounds and disease. Notes for Analiya (Anna) Elizabeth Ridenour:

Misc:

“Frank L. Crouch, the son of Charles and Eliza (Ridenour) Crouch, was born May 23, 1876, in Page county, Iowa, near the town of Clarinda. His parents were natives of Illinois and came to Page county about 1868 or 1870. Charles Crouch was the son of Louis, a gallant veteran of the Civil War. Frank L. Crouch was about nine years of age when his parents moved to Nebraska, where they lived for three years. They then returned to Page county, Iowa. His father left the family when living in Nebraska. About three years later he remarried, and moved to St. Joe, Missouri. He now lives at Topeka, Kansas. In 1894 the mother of Frank L. Crouch married Lemuel Stilwell at Yorktown, Page county, Iowa, moving to Shelby county the same spring. Mr. Crouch was eighteen years of age when he accompanied his stepfather and the remainder of the family to Shelby county. When he was only sixteen he left home to work by the month on the farms in the immediate vicinity of his home, receiving twelve dollars a month for his services.” (Roots Web, 1915 Past and Present of Shelby County, Iowa, n.d., <<http://www.rootsweb.com/~iashelby/1915bio/1915bio22.htm>>).

Author's note: I had obtained Clarence's medical file from the archives of the Clarinda Mental Health Institute located in Clarinda, Iowa. Some of the records are presented herein. The remaining records were omitted because of space limitations. Clarence spent approximately 51 years at the mental institute for what appears to be nothing more than a behavioral disorder which was controlled by the advent of modern, i.e., 1950 onwards, drug therapy. He spent the last eight years and eight months of his life in the care of the Shelby County Home.

Lemuel Stillwell gives the following, April 10, 1904:-

One paternal aunt died of tuberculosis and an uncle of dropsy. All the other relatives on both sides were strong and healthy.

One brother of the patient died of dropsy of the heart.

The patient was strong and healthy, but he showed mental weakness from his seventh year or the time he commenced going to school. He quit school at the age of 17 years. Since his mother died in 1887, after an operation for a tumor, he has been from place to place among strangers, but I could see his mind was getting weak all the time. He showed great lack of judgment in everything he tried to do. He never tried to harm himself.

Clarinda, Iowa

Dear Sir,

I saw your name in the paper not long ago but have forgotten your initials but think you will receive this all right. The paper also stated that you had been there for some time before you became Superintendent so I suppose you know many of the patients personally so this is written to notify Mr Clarence Stillwell of the death of his father Samuel Stillwell who passed away July 15th 1933.

I suppose he has often wondered why we did not come to visit him, but we have not been able to come.

His Father has been very poorly for the past five yrs. Five yrs ago the Drs did not think he could possibly live from heart trouble and other complications followed.

I should have sent this sooner but that I would come and tell him myself but find that I am not able to take the trip till I get more rested up as I was his constant nurse. If Clarence gets seriously sick or anything happens to him please notify me

Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of Febr. 1st
I wish to say that it will be impossible for me to come to Clarinda in the event of my brother Clarence Stillwell's death and take charge of his burial; on account of the condition of my health, and for various other reasons.
I am Clarence's senior by several years; however I might be able to help some with the funeral expenses. Before I make any definite promise regarding this matter, I wish to know approximately the total cost of of a modest funeral in the Clarinda Cemetery

Respectfully

Clarinda, Ia.

Dear Sir:

In regard to the letter on reverse side, I will try to give you the best information you request concerning the matter of Clarence Stillwell whom is my brother. I am not financially able to stand any great expense in case of illness or death.

The only living relatives other than myself are two brothers, Mr. C. Stillwell living near Pawnee City, Nebr. and the other brother living near Lang, Canada. I would advice to write to them to find out their information concerning this matter as I feel they are more capable of standing the responsibility. I would like to be notified in case of death by telegram which I will pay the charges. If I can give you any more information, I will try and do so. Yours very truly
Mrs. Lilly Bird

Notes for Abel Stilwell:

Misc:

Abel Stillwell served as private with C Company, 64th Illinois Volunteer Infantry Regiment from February 23, 1864 until July 11, 1865. During the period of Abel's service the regiment was assigned to the 1st Brigade, 4th Division 16th Army Corps through September, 1864. It was subsequently transferred to the 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 17th Army Corps and remained with this larger element until the regiment was mustered out of service on July 11, 1865. During this period of time the regiment participated in the Atlanta Campaign and fought at the Battles of Resaca, New Hope Church, Kennesaw Mountain and Atlanta. During the Carolina Campaign the regiment was engaged at the Battle of Jonesboro and other minor skirmishes. It participated in the occupation of Raleigh and was present at the surrender of Johnston's forces. Author's note: Civil War records indicate that William served with the 5th Mississippi Cavalry and the 5th Mississippi Infantry Regiment. It is not clear whether he served first with the 5th Cavalry or the 5th Infantry. His tombstone was inscribed with the 5th Infantry.

William served as a private with C Company 5th Mississippi Infantry Regiment which was formed in the spring of 1861 with men from Pike, Amite, Lauderdale, Winston, Noxubee, and Kemper counties. The regiment served initially in Florida and fought at the Battle of Shiloh under General Chalmers command. The regiment was later assigned to various brigades with the Army of Tennessee. The regiment was engaged at Murfreesboro and Atlanta. It suffered heavy casualties during both engagements losing 155 men of the 395 that were engaged in both battles. Only a remnant of the regiment surrendered on April 26, 1865. She was living with her extended family in the 6th Ward of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County. All three of the children born to her up through the time of the enumeration of this census were alive.

⁶⁵⁴⁹US Census Bureau, 1920 North Carolina Federal Census (National Archive Roll No. T625_1309, ED 149, p. 16A). She was living with her extended family in the 6th Ward of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County.

Children of Hampton Alexander Stilwell and Bettie (---) were as follows:

Author's note: It appears the couple either divorced or were separated prior to the enumeration of the 1900 Federal Census. Hampton was listed as being single and Bettie was listed as being a widow. Lester was living with his father and stepmother in 1910. I have only been able to definitely identify two of the eight children born to the couple. I suspect that Oscar, who was living with his paternal grandparents in 1900, was one of their children but I have been unable to confirm that.

8405 i Willie C.⁹ Stilwell [41453], born⁶⁵⁵¹ July 1885 in North Carolina.

Author's note: Willie was listed as Luther Stilwell's nephew in the 1900 North Carolina Federal Census record. Hampton is the only logical candidate to be Willie's father based on birth and marriage dates.

+ 8406 ii James Fred⁹ Stilwell [41331], born 31 August 1888 in North Carolina. He married Hazel E. (---) [41358].

+ 8407 iii Lester Cloye⁹ Stilwell [41332], born 3 January 1893 in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. He married Mollie (---) [41339].

Notes for Oscar Sample Alexander

“Oscar Sample Alexander, the oldest son, was born October 11, 1876. He apparently was named for Reverend Oscar Sample, whose grave is in the Sharon Presbyterian Church cemetery. Oscar owned a farm on River Road, on the same side of the road as his parents. He married Mary Belle (Mamie) Reynolds of Moore County.1 Mamie was born February 14, 1888. Her parents were George W. Reynolds and Annie M. McPherson. During the Great Depression, Oscar suffered heavy financial losses as a cotton broker. The couple had seven children, and Mamie was determined that all of them would attend college. For several years during the 'thirties, while Oscar ran a hardware store in Goldston, Mamie ran a boarding house for students in Durham, so that her sons could attend Duke University. Her establishment served meals for as many as forty students and furnished lodging for a few, including nieces and nephews, one of whom was Willie Alexander, who waited tables. Mamie's determination enabled her children to later pursue careers in education, dentistry, law, and politics. After the Depression, Oscar and Mamie moved to Kannapolis, where Oscar was executive secretary for the Merchants Association, and Mamie worked in his office as a secretary. They later went into the real estate business and built and rented houses. Oscar died April 2, 1950 and Mamie died in 1951. They were buried at Carolina Memorial Park in Kannapolis.” (Glenda Alexander, From Mecklenburg to Moore: Four North Carolina Families, n.d., <<http://home.earthlink.net/~glendaalex/objectives.htm>>).

married Frances V. Plonk [20673], born⁶⁶⁹⁹ 10 June 1910 in Cleveland County, North Carolina; buried in Kings Mountain, Cleveland, North Carolina, daughter of Rufus Plonk [41567] and Mary Motley [41568].

“William Edgar Alexander (photograph above, upper row, far left) was born in Moore County February 9, 1910. He attended Duke University. From 1933-38 he taught Mathematics and Science at Elise High School in Robbins, N.C., where he also coached and was Dean of Boys. His beginning salary was $600 a year. As Dean, Edgar used to threaten the boys with a bottle of Castor Oil when they tried to cut class by pretending to be sick. He joked that the sight of the bottle itself was a cure, while most medicines had to be swallowed. He also had some trouble curing the boys of cursing, which he punished by assigning them to cut up firewood for the furnace in their dormitory. At that time they were burning railroad ties, which required a lot of labor with a crosscut saw. When Edgar accidentally spilled tacks in the hallway and several barefoot boys came running through, he acquired a lot of woodcutting help.* After military service in World War II, Edgar attended Emory University School of Dentistry and established a practice in Robbins, N. C. He married Frances Plonk of Kings Mountain. He died November 9, 1987. They were both buried at Mountain Rest Cemetery in Kings Mountain.” (Glenda Alexander, From Mecklenburg to Moore: Four North Carolina Families, n.d., <<http://home.earthlink.net/~glendaalex/objectives.htm>>).

Notes for Israel Evans

“... from LDS Biographical Encyclopedia, Andrew Jenson, Vol.4, p.743”

“Evans, Israel, a member of the Mormon Battalion, Company B, was born October 2 1828, at Hanover, Columbiana county, Ohio, a son of David Evans and Mary Beck. He was baptized when eight years old in Missouri, was at the Haun's Mill Massacre in Missouri October. 30, 1838, his mother and himself hiding in the underbrush. He enlisted as a private in Company B of the Mormon Battalion July 16, 1846, and marched overland to California. After disbanding he went to work at Sutter's Mill, where gold was discovered, worked long enough to enable him to return to Utah, and arrived in Great Salt Lake City October. 1, 1848. He married Matilda A. Thomas January 1, 1849, settled in Lehi, Utah, filled a mission to England in 1853-1857, and on his return had charge of the Israel Evans handcart company, consisting of 31 handcarts and 134 souls. He was mayor of Lehi one term, and a member of the city Council. He died May 31, 1896, in Lehi, respected by all who knew him.”⁷¹²²

THE KILLING OF W. T. STILLWELL

The unfortunate death of W. T. Stillwell, a well known citizen of this county in a railroad wreck near Fort Worth Sunday last occurred about as follows:

There were two sections of the train and W. T. Stillwell, J. G. Adkins and Barcliff Bartlett, all citizens of Rosebud were in the caboose of the front section on route to eastern markets with cattle.

A freight train loaded with California oranges was heading in on the siding two miles the other side of Keller, which is situated about fifteen or sixteen miles from Fort Worth, when the first section of a stock train going north came in sight.

Deep fog prevailed at the time and the engine at the rear section was within a few feet of the caboose in which the three men were before the engineer on the rear section discovered the signal. He reversed his engine, but on account of the close proximity to the rear end of the first section, his engine crashed into the caboose, plowed half way through the cab and reduced it to a heap of
